

East Tilbury Primary School is committed to ensuring children's education and experiences are rich in Cultural Capital.

The Department for Education defines Cultural Capital as "The essential knowledge that pupils need to be educated citizens, introducing them to the best that has been thought and said and helping to engender an appreciation of human creativity and achievement."

Our curriculum is intertwined with our Cooperative values: Solidarity, Democracy, Self-Help, Self-Responsibility, Equality and Equity. These 6 core values also enable our children to enrich their Cultural Capital.

Our rich and broad curriculum provides opportunities for children to experience a rich cultural capital.

Opportunities include:

- Exploring and understanding the value of money, whilst learning about financial and money management.
- Participating in a broad and balanced PSHE curriculum.
- Supporting charities.
- Learning and experiencing how to grow a plants, fruit and vegetables.
- Learning how to play a musical instrument, both tuned and untuned.
- Visiting a religious place of worship, for example a Church or a Mosque.
- Understanding how history has shaped my future today (World War Two/ Roman Legacy etc)
- Reading and listening to stories by a diverse range of authors.
- Writing a letter, addressing an envelope and posting it in the post box or at the post office.
- Visiting a farm or zoo
- Learning how to navigate the internet and how to send an email.
- Learning how to say key phrases in another language.
- Taking part in a live concert or performance
- Visiting a stadium or theatre to watch a live sports event or performance.